

THE LOVE OF CHRIST

Mike Hohnholz, Aaron Sternke

1

Throughout all the universe All that time has seen
There is nothing that compares to knowing you my king
And my hearts only desire is to know you everyday
To take up my cross and deny my selfish ways

Chorus

And I pray, that I might power, to know How wide and how long
And how high and deep is the love, the love of Christ

2

What is this life, full of broken dreams and empty sacrifice
Mysteries' that fool even the wise, putting our hope in things that never satisfy
Why would I think that I could do this on my own
When all I've ever gained is not my own, knowing your love is the only place I find my home

Bridge

You're in the setting sun, You're pouring the rain
You're in the cloudless sky, You're in the crashing wave
You're in the quietness, You're in the joy and pain
The echos of your love, I hear them as you sing
